“Seeking the True and Real”

November 15, 2015

Northwest Buddhist Temples, fellow Buddhists and other interested attendees,

RE: 69th Annual Northwest Buddhist Convention, February 12-14, 2016, Ontario Oregon
hosted by Idaho-Oregon Buddhist Temple

We are looking forward to the Northwest Convention and have a lot of great things in store for you. With the participation of our Northwest ministers, our MAP staff, Bishop Umezue, Dr. Mark Blum, all those involved with our workshop offerings, our art project, and all the committees who help to plan, we hope that this will be a convention from which you take home lots of great memories.

Registration

Friday, February 12, 4PM - 9PM, registration formalities and hospitality will take place at the Temple, 286 SE 4th St.

Saturday, February 13, 8AM, registration open at Four Rivers Cultural Center, 676 SW 5th Ave.

Transportation

The nearest airport to Ontario is Boise, Idaho, about 55 miles away. For those arriving by plane, transportation to/from Ontario will be provided. Please make note on your registration and we will coordinate transportation for you. Rental cars are also available at the airport, advance reservations recommended.

Your chartered buses typically will transport you between your hotel and Four Rivers Cultural Center. However, for transportation needs beyond their normal schedule or if you are otherwise without transportation, Idaho-Oregon will provide transportation between the convention site and your hotel for you.

Transportation to your hotels will be provided for those attending Friday meetings whether they occur at the Temple or at Four Rivers Cultural Center.

Youth Activities!

Friday youth activity is planned, as is a ping pong tournament for Saturday. We're still putting finishing touches on what we have in store for the youth, so please refer to your convention booklet at registration for details.

Special Needs

Every effort will be made to accommodate special needs. Please make note of special needs on the individual registration form.
